Compilation of the list was undertaken by a special sub-committee of the Hastings and District War Memorial Committee. It arranged for a search of Base Records of the Army Department, and had the support of the R.S.A. It contains about 260 names, but some of the names are incomplete in that the full Christian names are not known.

“We have sought to ensure that every man in the district whose names should be commemorated is on the list to be honoured in the Hall of Memories,” states the sub-committee’s report.
